READY FOR TENNIS BATTLES.

Annual District Tourney Starts Tomorrow at Dumbarton Club.

The twenty-eighth annual tournament for the championship of the District of Columbia will open tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock on the courts of the Dumbarton Club, Wisconsin avenue and R street northwest. The courts are in good shape for the matches, and it is expected from the list of entries that much good tennis will be forthcoming.

The entries in the men's singles will close tonight at 6 o'clock. All entries should be sent to the Dumbarton Club or to a member of the tennis committee before that time. Entries will be received by telephone. The tennis committee consists of Rawlins Hume, chairman; A. W. Howard, G. G. Lincoln and Douglas Hillyer. The drawings will be made tonight and published in tomorrow's newspapers. The drawings in the men's doubles, ladies' singles and mixed doubles will not be made until later, the entries in those events not closing until tomorrow night.

If Connie Mack had five Joe Bushes the six-cornered fight in the American League this season would be for the tail and not the lead.

FAIL TO STOP SOX

Nationals Beaten in Opener at Chicago by 7 to 5.

SCORE LATE IN GAME

Faber Lets Up on National Batters
After Obtaining Good Lead.

Special Dispatch to The Star.

CHICAGO, September 15.—The Nationals were unable to stop the White Sox today in the first game of the western tour, for they went down in defeat by the score of 7 to 5. Bert Gallia, Doc Ayers and Claude Thomas, the recruit southpaw, were unable to stem the torrent of base hits that the local men piled up during the afternoon's contest. Thirteen safe drives were collected off the three Washington pitchers while the Nationals were making ten hits off "Red" Faber. The visitors got six of their hits, though, in the last three rounds of the game, after the victory had been safely stored away. Doc Ayers was the victim of most of the Sox heavy artillery work in the only round that he worked. Five runs and five hits, mixed up with a wild throw by Foster and two bases on balls, finished the big right-hander for the day. Thomas took his place and finished the game, and held the locals to one hit in the two rounds he worked.

The afternoon was dark and somewhat chilly, and the wind blew clouds of dust across the infield so that it was impossible at times to see what was going on. The dust seemed to trouble the Nationals more than it did the Sox. Gallia pitched three innings without getting into any serious trouble. One hit was made off him in the first and another in the second and two safe drives were made in the third, but he got out of the inning each time it was in the fourth inning that the first runs were made by the Sox. Ness started to right field with a double to right, and Terry sacrificed him to third. Lapp singled to left, scoring Ness, and Faber pitched out to Milan. John Collins then smashed a three-base drive to right field, scoring Lapp.

Ayers took the mound in the sixth, because Griff thought it would be well to let Jamieson bat for Gallia in that round. Ayers did not seem to be able to fool the Chicago men at all. Terry started the big inning with a walk. Lapp singled to left and Faber followed with another safe drive. John Collins forced Terry at the plate but Weaver bunted, just out of Ayers' reach, and Foster picked the ball up, throwing it to right field and letting Lapp, Faber and J. Collins score, while Weaver pulled up at third. Eddie Collins walked and stole second. Jackson then drove a single to left, scoring Weaver and E. Collins. Felsch singled, putting Joe on third, and they were both out trying a double steal. Faber had allowed only four hits up to the seventh. With a lead of 7 to 0 he did not worry and seemed to let down. The Nationals took full advantage of the fact and made three runs in that inning. Milan walked and went to second on Smith's tap to Ness. Shanks fled to right, and reached second when John Collins dropped the ball and Milan scored. Judge fled to Jackson and McBride singled to left, scoring Shanks. Henry was walked, and Rice, banging Ayers, drove a single to right, scoring McBride. In the eighth Milan started another rally and scored. He hit to left with one down, and Smith followed with a single to center. Shanks forced Smith and Milan scored. In the ninth McBride led with a single to right and Henry rolled out to Ness. Leonard singled to center, scoring McBride. Foster drew a base on balls, and Milan threatened to tie up the count with a hit to left, but Jackson managed to get to it just in time to capture it. Joe Jenkins, once with the St. Louis Browns, who failed to make good in the Southern League and was shifted to Texas, where he has been going big with Houston, has been purchased by the Chicago White Sox. Jenkins not only has caught good ball, but is hitting well over .300. He might have been in the majors right along had he shown the right kind of spirit, according to comment heard in St. Louis.

LEAD FOR CHICAGO
IS POSSIBLE TODAYDefeat of Griffmen Places
White Sox Within Half a Game of Boston and Detroit.

BY J. ED GRILLO.

The defeat of both Detroit and Boston yesterday and the victory of the White Sox over the Griffmen put the Sox within half a game of Boston and Detroit.

If the report of the injuries of Russell and Schalk have been exaggerated, as is indicated by The Star's Chicago correspondent, the pitcher and catcher will be back in the game within a day or two. Consequently the weakened condition of the Chicago team will not be of long duration.

Any time Doc Ayers has to handle bunts or do any other kind of fielding the chances are the other team will get a lot of runs. Doc is one of the most awkward fielders the game has ever produced. He has been in the game four years, but he still is a novice at fielding his position.

Sam Rice broke into the game in the seventh inning yesterday. Though he has had but little batting practice, he drove out a line single over F. Collins' head and scored McBride with the winning run. It is one of the best hits in the league, and now that he is well he is not going to be out of the game much longer, even if Griffith uses him only to pinch hit, in which role he has made a remarkable record this season. Morgan also was used as a pinch hitter, but Faber fanned him.

Menoskey, who is to join the Nationals in Cleveland next Tuesday, is by far the best hitter on Cantillon's team. Last week Menoskey made twelve hits in five games, among which were two home runs. The latest scores of the Minneapolis team show Menoskey is still hitting, but he is confining himself to singles, with an average of about two to a game. It remains to be seen how Menoskey will look against American League pitchers. He is said to be very fast and has stolen a lot of bases this year.

THOMAS SHOWS PROMISE

Special Dispatch to The Star.

CHICAGO, Ill., September 15.—Pitcher Claude Thomas, the young southpaw who reported to Manager Griffith here, appears to be a real find. Griff sent the youngster to the front to finish the game for the Nationals yesterday, without giving the new man much chance to get ready, and he came through in grand shape, stopping the Sox short after they had driven two of the regular members of the staff to cover.

Thomas is a slender youth of twenty-two years and stands fully six feet tall. He weighs 175 in his present shape and shows every sign of being a find.

His move toward first is one of the most deceiving that any youngster has shown for many a day.

Ness, the first man to face him yesterday, got into the way of one of his curves and got to first. The Sox first-sacker took a good lead off the bag, but before he knew it Judge had the ball and came just about as near tagging him out as he cares to be.

After that experience he hugged the bag so closely that he looked foolish. John Collins got a hit off Thomas to start the eighth inning, but that was the only one in the two innings. Griff is greatly pleased with his prospect.

According to Manager Griffith, Mike Menoskey will report at Cleveland next Tuesday. He got this information from Joe Cantillon, manager of the Minneapolis team, who said he would let Menoskey start for Cleveland Monday.

Jim Shaw will likely be the pitcher Griffith will select to pitch the final game here.

Walter Johnson will not be used here unless he will be needed to finish up the game. He is not due to pitch until tomorrow anyway.

The Nationals will get the benefit of a special attraction here today, for it is flag raising day and India's day also. The flag denoting the championship of Chicago, which was won last fall from the Cubs in the city series, has not been unfurled, but will be turned loose this afternoon. A large crowd is expected to come out to see the fun.

The White Sox will not badly cripple in the game Wednesday, after all. Russell, who turned his ankle sliding into second, is not badly hurt and will be back in a few days, while Schalk will be ready to go behind the plate in another day or two.

Johnson went out to warm up in the ninth inning yesterday when it looked as if the Sox will not badly cripple in the game Wednesday, after all. Russell, who turned his ankle sliding into second, is not badly hurt and will be back in a few days, while Schalk will be ready to go behind the plate in another day or two.

There was great rejoicing by the fans here when the score of the games in Detroit and St. Louis showed the Tigers and Red Sox getting trimmed. Shouts of gladness from all corners of the field were emitted. The White Sox as a result crawled to within half a game of the top.

There will be a real battle here tomorrow when the Sox come for the start of the final series here. Manager Rowland is planning on sending Lefty Williams to the front to pitch the opening game against the champions, because he has been successful against them in the past.

Kirkham's 32 Hits Out of 39 Times
Up May Be World's Mark.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., September 15.—Kenzie Kirkham, left fielder for the St. Joseph Western League team, has established what is believed here to be a world's record in batting. In the last thirty-nine times at bat Kirkham has made thirty-two hits.

Cobb in 1913 set a record of thirty-one hits in thirty-nine times up.
